Dulles Backs JFK Against Nixon

Former CIA Chief Allen Dulles has backed the White House in refuting a charge by former Vice President Richard M. Nixon that Mr. Kennedy's campaign statements had endangered the security of the then planned Cuban invasion.

Mr. Nixon charged that Mr. Kennedy had been briefed on Cuban invasion plans by Mr. Dulles and told how CIA was supporting it.

Mr. Nixon's allegation is in his new book, "Six Crises," to be published by Doubleday on March 29.
